JAPS BACKING MR. TSUKAMOTO

Large Purse Raised by the Local Japanese for Expense and Wagers.

Tsukamoto will not be without backers when he starts in the match Marathon at the Athletic Park next Sunday afternoon at 1:30. The local Japanese have rallied round him and are making a very loud noise to the effect that Jackson has not got a chance.

A sum of some $3000 is in the hands of a prominent local Japanese merchant to be wagered at odds of 10 to 9 that Tsukamoto will win the race. This may be taken all at one time or in any quantity desired.

In addition to making up this huge Jack-pot the Japanese are showing their confidence and appreciation of their countryman in other ways. A special fund for Tsukamoto's training expenses has been raised and the finest masseurs and trainers of all the local sons of Nippon have offered their services free of charge.

Tsukamoto's room was a trifle warm at night. A Japanese merchant sent up two electric fans. Tsukamoto's kimono training cloak was torn when returning from his last run. Another and very much finer one was sent up to his rooms.

Tsukamoto's trainers ran shy of rough towels. Two dozen of the finest bath towels were delivered by a polite youth on Saturday afternoon. When asked where they came from he replied "From a Japanese admirer."

A Big Celebration.

The local Nipponese population is preparing for a great celebration next Sunday. Hundreds of Tsukamoto flags have been ordered and these will be attached to canes to be carried to the Athletic Park and waved during the race, for the encouragement of the Japanese runner.

While talking to Tsukamoto in his dressing room yesterday afternoon, an advertiser reporter heard sounds of combined yelling followed by a most lively Banzai. He asked what the noise was about and was told that it was the rooting squad practising for next Sunday.

It seems that a large number of the younger Japanese have organized a rooting squad. The sounds they have manufactured are based on regular American college yells. To reproduce them would be impossible but a rough translation given by Tsukamoto's trainer-in-chief gives some idea of it:

Tsukamoto, runner, runner,
Tsukamoto covers distance.
And Nippon wins the race
Banzai, Banzai, Banzai,
Banzai Tsukamoto.

The Japanese words fit together in great shape and it is really quite enlivening when the whole bunch starts this warcry.

Likes His Haole Grub.

Tsukamoto is still enamored of his haole food. Unlike Jackson he is quite stuck on half-rare beefsteaks and has a great penchant for bread and butter and—would you believe it?—English marmalade.

He says that he picked up this habit in Hilo. There were Scotchmen there who always had Dundee marmalade for breakfast and he caught the habit from them. Now that he is training and can have everything of that kind, he goes for the orange dope every morning with great gusto.

No More Breakaways.

Jackson was out again at the park yesterday morning. He is brimming with good health and spirits and looks all the better for his dip from the training cart on Sunday. Now there are two stolid sleuths who follow him perpetually.

Jackson paid a visit to this office yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. A solemn looking guy followed him. The latter was asked if he wished to see the editor. The answer was to the point. "See de editor?" he grumbled. "Well I should savvy NO. Me I'm after dat gink dere wot tink he's trainin' fer a Mary Thorn. De last time he poked his rum-smeller in dis place he hit de ice-water tank fer a dozen. L didn't see him, but I heard about it. Nothin' doin' on the glacier route."

While Jackson told of how he felt and of the great speed he could have shown during his morning training, the sleuth stood nearby. After ten minutes of talk Nigel was told "To cut out thier get-verred-hot and to mosey along to der mush factory." Also something about "Hay makings fer youse at nine well before midnight." And Nigel went very, very meekly.

F. F. VS. SHUT OUT PENNSYLVANIA

F. F. Vs. 2. Pennsylvania 0.

The West Virginia has earned the right to play the Colorado in the finals of the series for the Hongkong cup, by defeating the Pennsy in the third game of the preliminary series.

The Colorado beat the Maryland two straight games before the fleet went speed chasing but the F. F. Vs. were beaten once by the Quakers so one more game had to be played. Now the F. F. Vs. and the Freddie Bassett Kiddos will scrap it out to see who gets the cup.

It was a fast and snappy game that was played at the league grounds yesterday afternoon. "Oh You Kiddo" Schaeffer was in good form and slipped over the fadeaway in great shape on the Quakers. Monroe kept careful tab on his temper and spilled out a fine catching game. His seven assists go to show that he was certainly there with the goods.

The winners scored one in the first. McGinn, whose name rhymes so neatly with "begin," did begin. He started with a terrible swat to left field for a double. He stole second and went to third while Fuller died. Then he romped on an error.

Monroe binged in the sixth with two men down. He went to third on second baseman's error and romped on a wild pitch.

The official score was as follows:

TIGERS BEAT AIEA BUNCH

The Waipahu Tigers slipped it to the Aiea bunch on Sunday and it was a great game. The game did not start till 2:30, instead of 11:30 as arranged, and the Tigers became rather peeved at the delay. But, when the game did start, it was a great one as shown by the official score.

The feature of the game was the burbling of Miles, manager of the Waipahu team. He had a kit of tools, several sticks of dynamite and is said to be able to open any safe by listening to the click of the tumblers. The police had better look out for him. So far the only things he has stolen are bases. But he surely can steal them.

The Waipahu press agent sends in a hot account of the game. Willingly we would reproduce it but it seems to be prejudiced. He states, however, that both pitchers twirled an excellent game. There is a reservation to the effect that the Aiea pitcher never was in the same class as the Waipahu ditto.

This same good writer winds up by saying that the Waipahu Tigers are playing a peach of a game and are not afraid of anybody. When Lester West gets back from his vacation the Waipahu bunch would like to hear from him.

As a matter of fact the plantation boys have been playing some very fine ball. The strike kind of broke up the plantation league series but since that time the boys have been practising hard and putting up some very fine doses of the old one, two and three medicine. George Clark, the star twirler of the Boers, is a gift from the plantations and there are many more like him. Is it not written that Waialua once slipped it to the "Tisers"? Is there whitewash in Gilead? There is.

The official score of the above game was as follows:

MILITARY BASEBALL LEAGUE PENNANT WON BY THE N. G. H. TEAM.

The N. G. H. Has Challenged a Picked Team From the Fleet to Play at the League Grounds Next Sunday.

Charlie Reilly to Reappear in Honolulu--The Splinterweight Battle to Be a Feature.

Aloha Park Events Tonight.

Charlie Reilly vs. McKarley of the Tennessee; 10 rounds; 133 pounds.

Kid Nelson of Honolulu vs. Harry Scholl, U. S. S. California; splinterweight, 105 pounds; 10 rounds.

Kid Terry of U. S. Tug Iroquois vs. McDonald of U. S. S. Tennessee; 130 pounds; 10 rounds.

Aloha Park Events Tomorrow Night.

Bugler Sareoni of Camp Very vs. John Larou, U. S. S. West Virginia; 10 rounds at 130 pounds.

Lawson, U. S. S. Washington, vs. Thunderbolt Higgins, U. S. S. Washington; 10 rounds at 142 pounds.

Burnam, West Virginia, vs. George Nelson of Camp Very; 10 rounds at 155 pounds.

As already stated several times, Aloha park is on Hotel street next door to the human roulette wheel and directly opposite the Empire theater. Fred Smith is manager and has arranged a series of bouts for every night this week.

The three bouts for tonight look like very good ones. Everybody in Honolulu knows Charlie Reilly and how he has made himself the Honolulu favorite in the pugilistic line. He has never suffered defeat here and has come back to Honolulu to see if any of the boys from the fleet can argue with him.

McKarley, from the West Virginia, is said to be a very great man in the lightweight limit. The men on his own ship state that he is right up to the Trinkle class and can certainly give Reilly a hard go over a ten round distance.

Good Splinterweight.

The second preliminary will be well

Sport Notes

Sergeant Bob White, of Camp Very, is manager of Sareoni and is anxious to get matches with his principal beside the one already arranged. Address Sergeant White at the local Marine camp or see Fred Smith at Aloha Park.

Mead won the roller skating race at the Princess Rink last night. Garnett slipped at the start and before he could recover himself, Mead had a big lead on him. The time was simply great—3 mins. 1 second. Two seconds faster than the last race. This is very close to the world's record for the distance. There will be another race to-morrow night.

The sale of seats for the boxing matches at Aloha Park will open this worth seeing. This is the first time that two real splinterweights have appeared in Honolulu and the event will be a treat for the fans. This Kid Nelson has been quite sassy for some time and is sure that he can hand it to any other kid at his weight—105 pounds.

His challenge has been taken up by Harry Scholl, of the California. This lad is very clever with his mitts and is as quick as a flash. He has had little experience in the professional ring but he is out to make good and so is his opponent. This meeting is bound to be a hot one.

Kid Terry Is There.

Kid Terry is favorably known here on account of the excellent showing he has put up in all of his bouts. At 130 pounds he can make it hard for any man, and this McDonald, of the Tennessee, will certainly have to put up some doings if he is to get the better of the Iroquois kid.

Three excellent bouts of the two-minute, clean boxing variety. It looks like an excellent show and one to be patronized by the fans. Chalmers Graham will act as master of ceremonies and H. M. Ayres as referee.

Plenty of Material.

All yesterday Fred Smith was besieged by boxers and managers of boxers from the fleet, all anxious for a go. He has no lack of good material and will easily be able to put on a good show every night during the week.

The ring has been erected, electric lights strung above it so that there will be a good light, and a dressing room arranged in one corner of the park. Everything has been arranged for a series of very successful boxing matches.

There was quite a quantity of money changed hands on the roller skating race last night. Mead, the fleet champion, won the wad for his people and tore off a lively chunk for himself. The Marines were bitterly disappointed and are howling for another match.

There is going to be a race-off to-morrow night between Lovejoy and Bobby Mead to decide who is the champion of the Maryland. The reason of this is that Joe Cohen has put up a fine prize for a race between the champions of each cruiser. Each of these two thinks he is the faster man, and the matter will be decided tomorrow evening at 9:30.

There will be a big purse hung up by the management of the Princess rink for the inter-cruiser champion skating race. Course one mile. Full information at the rink.

MR. BERG PASSES THE ICE.

"I met Hart O. Berg in Paris just after he had been made an officer of the Legion of Honor," said a member of the Aero Club in New York. "It was at a dinner I met him; a dinner that some Spanish aeronauts attended."

"Mr. Berg praised the bravery of the Moors at Melilla. This annoyed one of the Spaniards. He rapped the table with his fist and shouted: 'The Moors are a bit on top now, but we'll soon have the upper hand. I tell you, sir, we've sent the cream of the Spanish army to Morocco.'"

"Whipped cream," said Mr. Berg.
